

“SAVE THE DATE”

Lewis County Night Out is sponsored by the Lewis County Youth Bureau, Lowville Police Department, Lewis County Opportunities, Inc, and Northern Regional Center for Independent Living. The event is designed to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness; recovery, and generate support for, and participation in local anticrime efforts. During this year’s opening ceremony, Kendra Virkler will sing the National Anthem and we will be recognizing our Volunteer Fire Departments. There will be demonstrations by local Law Enforcement Agencies K9 units, the NYS Police Rollover Simulator, and a Medical Helicopter-onsite (weather permitting). Additionally, there will be a Smoke House interactive display; Stop DWI Exhibit; Lowville Village Police Department-processing Safe Child ID cards; Lewis County General Hospital-CPR Demonstrations and over 35 prevention awareness agency informational tables including the Community Crisis Response Team, North Country Addictions Resource Center; UP!-United Prevention Community Coalition, and LCGH-New Candy Striper Program, to name a few. There will be youth activities including: Face Painting and Balloon Animals; Reality Check; Fatal Vision Goggle experience for teens; and more. There will be drawings for gift cards/door prizes throughout the evening; McGruff the Crime Prevention Dog will be on-site; Moose Radio will be broadcasting from the event; and there will be FREE FOOD by Lamont’s and FREE Stewarts Ice Cream served up by our Lewis County Dairy Princess and her court. Please mark your calendar, and join us for “Lewis County Night Out” on Friday, September 7th from 5:30pm to 7:30pm at the Lewis County Fairgrounds.
