

Fridays

1:30 to 3:00

Cancer Support

This is an opportunity to come and meet others that are on a similar path. This is a support group designed to meet the needs of anyone who has a diagnosis of cancer.

You never know how strong you are until being strong is the only choice you have !

Understanding what this means to you and how others have coped with their own journey will be the focus for everyone that attends.

Where: Northern Regional Center for Independent Living
210 Court Street, Suite 107
Watertown, NY 13601

Please call if you have questions or need directions.
315-785-8703

Walking with a friend in the dark is better than walking alone in the light.

Northern Regional Center for Independent Living