

Family Empowerment Series

The Family Empowerment Series is designed to educate families and those who work with families regarding effective communication, advocacy skills, and special education regulations. Topics will also focus on parental rights and responsibilities through the special education process for our youth.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER!

Please call or email to pre-register

When: Starting May 2, 2017 at 9 A.M. to 2:30 P.M.

Where: NRCIL 210 Court Street
Watertown

To pre-register, please contact:
Shelly at 315-785-8703 or richelled@nrcil.net

FREE

5/2: Introduction, Grief, Sensitivity, Diversity, People First and Developing a Vision

5/10: Evaluations, Classifications, Individualized Education Plans (IEP) and 504 plans

5/17: Laws/regulations and Record Keeping, Hands on Advocacy

5/24: Assessment (FBA), Positive Behavior Supports (PBIS), Discipline, Procedures and Due Process Rights

5/30: Transitioning from preschool to adulthood; Ask the advocate.

* To receive a comprehensive certificate you must attend all sessions, but you can register for any or all workshops.

Sponsored By:

