

NRCIL calls for Volunteers to Serve as Long-Term Care Ombudsmen

- Serve as advocates for residents living in nursing homes and assisted living facilities
- Help residents understand and exercise their rights to good care in an environment that promotes and protects their dignity and quality of life
- Identify and investigate complaints, educate residents, families, and facility staff on maintaining the health, safety, and rights of individuals living in long-term care settings.
- Volunteer in the Tri-County

Contact Joshua Sabel, Certified Ombudsman
315-785-8703 X 228
joshuas@nrcil.net